Reds Submit New Offer For Withdrawal

Official Count Is Required In Some Cases

PROPOSITION IS DESCRIBED 'REASONABLE'

U. N. Advance Headquarters, Korea, July 25—(AP)—Communist cease-fire negotiators today advanced a new proposal on withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea. A United Nations spokesman called it "reasonable in content and phraseology."

Brig. Gen. William Nuckols, who attended today's sessions, said the new Red proposition was "more temperate and reasonable in tone" than previous Communist demands.

Officially the U. N. said the new Chinese and North Korean suggestion on troop withdrawals was "sufficiently interesting" for Allied delegates to propose a long overnight recess for further study.

Neither Nuckols nor the U. N. communique indicated exactly how the Reds had modified their demand.

But Nuckols said it required 25 minutes to read.

The five Communist generals brought out their new plan after a three-day recess.

Before presenting his revised suggestion at today's fifth meeting, Korean Gen. Nam II asked for and received a further clarification of United Nations opposition to the original Red demand. This was done in a 55-minute morning session.

Then, in the afternoon General Nam presented the new idea.

After a recess, a rapid fire exchange followed between General Nam and Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, head of the U. N. delegation.

This clarified just what the Communists were driving at. Joy then suggested adjournment until tomorrow afternoon for full study of the new idea by the Allies.

To make sure there was no mistake, each side supplied the other with key portions of their positions in writing.

Nuckols said these were the first written exchanges between the opposing delegations in nine days of meetings.

There has been no agreement. (Turn to Page Eight)

Pert Grandmother Winner of Sweeping Triumph for Dems in Congressional Election

McKeesport, July 25—(AP)—A pert grandmother won a sweeping victory for the Democrats today in a special congressional election. She is Mrs. Vera Buchanan, 48, who will serve out the unexpired term of her late husband, Rep. Frank Buchanan.

Mrs. Buchanan captured 82,226 votes in 180 of the 33rd congressional district's 227 voting precincts compared to 18,956 for her Republican opponent, Clifford W. Flegal, 30.

The victor campaigned on a platform that followed the stand of her husband, former Democratic whip, in solidly supporting all of President Truman's policies. Flegal asked for support as a protest of all phases of the Truman administration.

Mrs. Buchanan stayed up most of the night to hear election returns but retired when she began to build up a commanding lead. She was not available for comment when her margin of victory became unmistakable.

Earlier, Mrs. Buchanan said she was very pleased with the way the election was going and expressed confidence that residents of the district would "back my stand and that of my late husband."

She polled about 63 per cent of the total vote cast. That is about the same proportion of votes garnered by her husband when he won election in 1950 by a plurality of more than 33,000 votes. Observers said probably less than 50 per cent of the registered 90,000 Democrats and 60,000 Republicans voted this year.

The exceptionally slow returns—blamed on the use of paper ballots—made Mrs. Buchanan's victory uncertain until mid-morning. Through the night, the lead saw-sawed back and forth between the candidates.

The district is traditionally Democratic and Mrs. Buchanan's supporters pointed out that the missing precincts are in industrialized areas where the biggest Democratic majorities are usually accumulated.

PLAN DEBATED BY G. O. P. TO 'GET' ACHESON

Washington, July 25—(AP)—At a sharply split party meeting, a majority of house Republicans present agreed today to support a plan aimed at striking Secretary of State Acheson off the federal payroll.

The decision to pursue the "get Acheson" drive through the medium of the State Department appropriations bill was taken by a standing vote of 71 to 33.

More than 90 Republicans either did not attend or refrained from voting.

Party leaders said the amendment, still to be drafted, would not designate Acheson by name but would specify that no federal pay could go to any "policy-making" department head who, at any time during the five years preceding appointment, belonged to a business or law firm that represented a foreign government.

Acheson's law firm once represented Poland.

A previous plan to ban any official was discarded on the grounds that it would hit many more men than Acheson.

Rep. Phillips (R-Calif.), sponsor of the amendment, told newsmen it would be offered late today or tomorrow.

Since Acheson already has been confirmed by the senate, the only way congress could remove him from office would be to impeach him. It can hold up his pay but that wouldn't throw him out of office.

The decision of the GOP conference is not binding on the members. Individuals still can vote the way they feel.

But refusal of so many of them to support the amendment made it doubtful that the "get Acheson" drive would succeed unless it gained heavy Democratic support.

Democratic leaders were confident they could beat it.

UPSETS ORGANIZATION
Judge Michael A. Musmanno, bucking the state Democratic organization, and conceded little or no chance for victory, is pulling up a steadily-increasing lead in his race for state supreme court nomination over Justice Grover C. Ladner, who now holds the post by appointment.

Welcome Awaiting M'Arthur in Boston For Speech Tonight

Boston, July 25—(AP)—A hero's welcome awaits General Douglas MacArthur today when he arrives for a two-day visit to Massachusetts.

The highlight of his visit will be his appearance tonight before a special joint session of the Massachusetts legislature.

The speech he is to deliver is a well-kept secret but the legislative committee which planned the visit said it would be of major importance.

His house appearance will be televised, and the speech will be carried on radio networks.

General and Mrs. MacArthur will arrive in Boston on a special train, riding in the private car of New Haven Railroad President Frederic C. Dumaine, Jr.

The train is to make only one stop, a momentary halt at Attleboro, not far from the North Attleboro home of U. S. Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. (R-Mass.).

It was Rep. Martin who disclosed in Washington the contents of a letter he received from General MacArthur which was critical of American policy in Korea.

The incident precipitated President Truman's dismissal of MacArthur as supreme commander in the Far East.

Official Count Is Required In Some Cases

County Commissioner William H. Olney, of Glade township, and Ralph N. Summerton, of Tidoute, were apparent winners today in a four-way race for the two Democratic nominations for county commissioner.

Olney led the race with an unofficial vote total of 549, while Summerton polled 401 total.

Carl J. Anderson, of Sheffield township, was just six votes behind Summerton with 395, and the official count of the ballots will have to be completed before the winner is known definitely. Bert J. Hoover, of Sheffield township, trailed fourth in the race with 319.

Republican County Commissioners L. L. Johnson of Youngsville and G. E. Seavy of Clarendon and the two Republican nominations for county commissioner. They were unopposed.

The running tally for the two Democratic county commissioner nominations was close all the way and it was not until 1:50 a. m. when Tidoute checked in with the final precinct tabulations that Summerton forged ahead of Anderson. The deciding margin from Tidoute gave Summerton 68 votes in that precinct while Anderson drew 12 in that borough.

Winners in other county contests were:

Republican nomination for sheriff: L. E. Linder of Warren won over G. K. Lodge of Tidoute, 3086 to 1490.

Republican nominations (two) for county auditor: J. Elmer Peterson of Tidoute and Charles H. Briggs of Pittsburgh township won, with Arthur H. Fehlman of Pine Grove township losing out in the three-way race. Peterson had 2872, and Fehlman had 1978.

Democratic nomination for jury commissioner: Margaret H. Hartnett of Warren's 4th ward, defeated Peter G. Juliano, also of Warren's 4th ward. The unofficial total was 525 for Mrs. Hartnett and 318 for Juliano.

In the only state-wide contest, Grover C. Ladner of Philadelphia, topped Michael A. Musmanno, of Allegheny county, 508 to 387, in Warren county balloting for the Democratic nomination for judge of the supreme court. Republican T. McKean Chidsey, of Northampton county, was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Numerous candidates were nominated without opposition for various county offices as follows:

Republican
County Judge—Allison D. Wade, Warren.
Prothonotary—Ralph E. Sires, Warren.
County Treasurer—Homer Bowerson, Warren.
County Commissioner—Neil M. Eggleston, Warren.
Democratic
Sheriff—John T. Rodgers, Mead township.
County Treasurer—David Potter, Warren.
County Auditor—Andrew M. Brooks, Conewango township, and Lyle E. Russell, Pine Grove township.

Philadelphia, July 25—(AP)—Rolling past the 50,000-vote majority mark, Judge Michael A. Musmanno of Pittsburgh swept to an astonishing victory today in the Democratic primary election contest for a seat on the supreme court.

His upset of Justice Grover C. Ladner, of Philadelphia, overshadowed even the victory of Dr. Daniel A. Poling in the Republican mayoralty nomination contest here.

Musmanno, fervid anti-Communist campaigner, had fought almost alone against the incumbent justice, who had the support of the big majority of the state's Democratic leaders and bar associations.

Ladner, 65-year-old former common pleas court judge in Philadelphia was appointed to the state's highest court last year by Republican Governor James H. Duff. Repeatedly this morning he told reporters he would have "no comment" on the election "until all the returns are in and I have an opportunity to digest them."

Musmanno, who is 55 and a Navy veteran, served as a judge at the war crimes trial in Nuremberg, Germany, after World War Two. More recently, he has attracted national attention by his efforts to jail western Pennsylvania Communists.

Philadelphia, July 25—(AP)—Justice Grover C. Ladner at noon today conceded his defeat for the Democratic supreme court nomination by Allegheny County Judge Michael A. Musmanno and sent his victorious opponent this telegram: "Congratulations on your victory in the Democratic primary." Justice Ladner said he had no further comment.

The sizzling supreme court contest, in which nomination meant election, drew attention from the GOP mayoralty contest in Philadelphia, which had been billed as the key contest in Tuesday's primary.

Sixteen-Year-Old Youth Questioned In Connection With Numerous Violations

A sixteen-year-old youth, one of three apprehended by city police over the weekend in connection with trouble at a west side manufacturing establishment, was picked up again last evening by Chief of Police Mike Evan and Patrolman Charles Musante and is being questioned today in connection with several other matters of a more serious nature.

Already certified to juvenile court, the young man has made other admissions to police which will tend to clear up burglaries and thefts under investigation for many weeks.

Chief Evan said that the youth has admitted entering the home of Stuart P. Marks, 429 Hickory street, while the Marks family was away during March. While nothing of great value was missing, a thorough job of ransacking the home was performed.

Drawers were opened and their contents strewn about; books were removed from bookcases and arched; mirrors and pictures were moved; and blinds were moved for search. Police are of the opinion that the intruder was searching for money rather than for valuables.

In addition to this entry, he has admitted the theft of a German 32-calibre automatic pistol from the car of a Warren citizen. He has been carrying the pistol in a shoulder holster, and was also in possession of a set of saw knuckles.

Police were called to Fourth avenue on the evening of Sunday, July 12, to investigate the sound shooting. At the time, they found nothing. However, the youth was admitted to Chief Evan that he was shooting the pistol into the pond at that time, firing four five shots.

Admitted also, said Chief Evan, was the theft of blankets, flashlights, and similar articles from several cars in recent months.

Picked up about 6:15 o'clock last evening, the young man was taken over night and will spend today, answering questions for investigating officers.

Council Fight In First Won by Kopf

Robert J. Kopf won the Republican nomination for Warren borough councilman in the first ward over the incumbent, Robert J. Wilson, Jr., in the only councilmanic contest in the borough at yesterday's primary election.

Kopf polled 110 votes to Wilson's 60.

Norman E. Matthews was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for councilman in the same ward.

Unopposed on the Republican ticket for councilmanic nominations in other wards were:

W. B. Africa, second ward; G. J. Patchen, third ward; William Pasquerette, fourth ward; Leon Laskaris, fifth ward; C. A. Rudiger, sixth ward; David C. Levine, Jr., seventh ward; Freeman O. Peterson, eighth ward; and W. R. Painter, ninth ward.

Unopposed candidates for Democratic councilmanic nominations in addition to Matthews in the first ward, were J. A. Bevevino, fourth ward, and Eugene E. Simmons, seventh ward.

Three Dead and Five Hurt in Auto Crash Near Butler

Butler, July 25—(AP)—An auto swerved out of control and crashed into two tractor trailers today, killing a woman and two children and injuring at least five other persons.

Killed were Mrs. Mildred Oravec, 44, of Sidman, Cambria county, and Rose Marie, eight months, and Mildred, two, the daughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Weshalek, of Portage.

Injured: Mrs. Catherine M. Weshalek, 26, Portage.

Mrs. Helen Weshalek, Barnesboro.

Beverly Weshalek, four, Portage.

Dorothy Noga, 11, Detroit, Mich.

John Kroll, 33, Myersstown.

State police said the crash occurred on Route 422, four miles west of Butler. They said one of the tractor trailers caught fire after the crash and the other rolled over an embankment.

All of the injured are in Butler hospital in serious condition. Kroll, driver of one of the tractor trailers, suffered second and third degree burns.

The driver of the other tractor trailer, James Stanley of Philadelphia, and two other persons not immediately identified, escaped unhurt.

State Police Sgt. Paul Rittelman said first reports of the crash were vague but he summed it up in this manner:

The tractor trailer operated by Kroll was attempting to pass the other trailer and was met head on by the auto operated by Mrs. Oravec.

Church Membership Reaches Record of 55.9 Per Cent of Population in 1950

New York, July 25—(AP)—Church membership in the United States rose to 85,705,280 in 1950, a record-making 55.9 per cent of the population.

The total membership was up 2,950,987 over the previous year.

The figures were reported last night in an annual survey compiled by the Christian Herald magazine.

These counts for the major faiths were listed:

Protestant membership rose 1,409,045 to a total of 60,083,868, an increase of 2.39 per cent over the previous year.

Roman Catholics increased 859,784 to a total of 28,470,092, up 3.1 per cent.

Jewish congregations, on which there were no new statistics, remained at 5,000,000.

The magazine, which makes the only comprehensive, regular survey of church membership in the United States, said "The major faiths continue in about the same proportion to each other."

"Protestants are still well in the lead, with 55.9 per cent of all church members," the report said. "Roman Catholics claim 33.2 per cent of the total, while Jewish congregations account for 5.8 per cent." The remaining 2.5 per cent is split among various other groups.

Church membership rose to an all-time record of 55.9 per cent of the nation's population as membership in various faiths increased 3.56 per cent last year while the population grew only 1.67 per cent.

Several Projects Discussed at Meeting Of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce

Sheffield, July 25—Several projects were discussed at the meeting of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce conducted last night in the American Legion home with about 30 persons present.

One of the most outstanding projects would be the recreation area in the 14 or 15 acres in the Deerlick street area. This plot of land has been offered to the Chamber of Commerce as a gift from Frank Handeyside.

The beautiful site with some assistance by the townspeople could be turned into a good recreation area for picnicking, fishing and swimming.

John Zandi, Adrian Daniels, Robert Fitch, Gerald Camp, John Grobowski and Frank Handeyside were named to the committee to investigate the possibilities of the site.

Lawrence Newburg, as chairman of the committee, will investigate repairing possibilities of the old mill path near Mill street. This project was felt necessary for the protection of the children in that area who have to walk along a busy road now when going to and from school and downtown.

Another committee appointed was Adrian Daniels, Art Boardman and George Moldovan to contact Lumis Glass and also Knox Glass Associates concerning the local Pennsylvania Bottle company which is reported to be closed by Dec. 31.

Robert Fitch was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate availability of land and buildings in the area for new industries.

The pros and cons of township and borough forms of government for Sheffield will be looked into by Thomas Sanford and his committee.

Burdette Weiser is chairman of a committee to contact persons regarding condition of the sidewalks in the downtown business loop.

17 Communities Vote From Wet to Dry While Three Ballot in Favor of Liquor

Harrisburg, July 25—(AP)—Dry forces removed a wet status from 17 communities in Pennsylvania on the basis of tabulations today of local option liquor and beer contests.

In contrast, voters gave the right in three dry municipalities to permit the sale of liquor or beer.

The count was based on returns from 77 of the 126 boroughs and townships who balloted yesterday on the wet vs. dry issue.

The box score:

Liquor: From wet to dry—14; from dry to wet—two; remained wet—26; remained dry—26.

Beer: From wet to dry—10; from dry to wet—one; remained wet—27; remained dry—14.

The tabulations confronted 10 taproom owners with the prospect of losing their state licenses.

The little Indiana county community of Plumville stayed wet by a scant two votes. Citizens voted 97 to 95 to keep their taproom in business.

And the mountain resorts to the east of Uniontown also were permitted to continue to sell liquor and beer. Voters of Wharton township of Fayette county turned in almost three to one to continue such sales.

Resident of Sugar Grove Injured By Car Near Westfield

Westfield, July 25—A 25-year-old Sugar Grove woman who was struck by a car while crossing Route 20 near here yesterday noon is listed as being in a serious condition at Westfield Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Marie Michaels of Route 4, Sugar Grove, is suffering from a compound fracture of the left jaw, compound fracture of the left leg, possible fractured skull, multiple laceration and abrasions of the body and shock. The hospital lists her condition as serious but not critical.

Sgt. C. H. Lee, Westfield State Police, reported that Mrs. Michaels attempted to cross Route 20 about one-fourth of a mile from Forsythe Bridge, between Westfield and Ripley, and ran in front of a car driven by Edward Joseph Kleber, Jr., 35, of 8908 Griffin street, Niagara Falls. Kleber swerved to the left to avoid hitting her but dragged her some distance on the south side of the road.

Kleber told State Police that he saw two ladies standing on the side of the road, and as he approached one of them attempted to cross and ran in the path of his car. The driver of the car was en route to Cleveland to visit his father.

Mrs. Michaels, who had been picking cherries at the McCutcheon brothers farm, had left the farm and walked across the road with a friend to a roadside soft drink stand. The accident happened when she again attempted to cross the road.

Landlords of Area Granted Increases

Landlords of Northwestern Pennsylvania received rent increases in 90 per cent of the 4,268 petitions filed with the Erie office during the 1951 fiscal year, Frank S. Anderson, area rent director, announced today. 3,873 landlords received an average increase of $6.67 for 4,816 units.

The large figure reflects the liberalized provisions for rent adjustments in the federal rent regulations, according to Anderson.

Summarizing the past year's work of the Erie office, the rent director said refunds and penalty payments obtained from landlords for rent overcharges totaled $30,895 for 358 tenants.

During the fiscal year, the Erie rent office granted certificates permitting eviction to 664 landlords and turned down 201 petitions as unjustified.

CROPS DAMAGED

Damage to grapes and tomatoes, resulting from the recent torrential rain storm which blitzed Erie and Erie county, may amount to 10 per cent of anticipated harvest estimates, area farm officials disclosed. Hail damage to grapes in North East and on Route 20 farms near the New York state line was extremely heavy as was damage done to various tomato patches in the immediate area surrounding Erie. No exact damage figures were available for publication today but farm agents report that the loss will run into "thousands of dollars." Damage to the tomato crop wasn't as severe as grape damage since very few tomatoes are on the vines now. Some damage, however, was reported on early tomatoes now growing. Lightning during the recent storm also broke off branches on area fruit trees but total damage in this respect was light.

IMPROVEMENT IN DIET

Did you know your diet has been improving for the last nine years and is getting better every day? That's what the Federal Department of Agriculture says in a recently completed study of American dietary habits stretched over the last 10 years.

According to this study the food brought into kitchens provided average quantities of protein, calcium, iron and five well-known vitamins.

Specifically, you've been eating more fruits, milk, eggs, meat, poultry and sugar.

But there's a joker in the deck. It's the statement in the report that the average protein and vitamin consumption does not meet the recommendation of the National Research Council. These standards have been rising during the last ten years and the average consumption has lagged behind an equal distance to the rise in the standards.

Calcium was found less in the daily diet than anything else. Next came vitamin C. But the encouraging aspect of the report is that diets are supposed to be improving — despite higher prices.

The average family used less potatoes and fewer grains, the report said.

As might be expected, high-income families had diets richer in most of the essential elements than did lower-income families. This was true in 1942, 1948 and 1950.

But the report points out that the margin between the two extremes has been narrowed by 50 per cent since the end of the war.

The lower income families have been eating more fruits, fresh vegetables and meat while the higher income groups have remained stationary in most divisions.

The report attributes one of the increases in fulfilling human necessities to the enrichment of bread and flour in the last six years. In all, the report says 20 per cent more iron and vitamin B have been added to diets through this product.

ORCHIDS OR WRIST WATCHES

Wall Street Journal

Have you a hobby? If you haven't, the Superintendent of Documents at the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., as good as says you are missing a lot. He offers "New Horizons in your hobby through these useful and entertaining Government Publications on Hobbies."

Perhaps you would like to hobby some orchids. Of Catalog No. AL35:206½ the G.P.O. says "The directions in this booklet are designed to aid the beginner in growing orchids." It's only eight pages, but then it's only five cents.

If orchid raising seems a bit sissy for you, why not try repairing wrist watches? Of Catalog No. WL35:9-1575 the same authority says, "This manual contains detailed instruction for inspection, assembly and repair of pocket watches, wrist watches, clocks and other timepieces." We pause to wonder whether sand glasses are included. Then we read on: "Watch repairing is an interesting and remunerative hobby, and this manual should be of great value to anyone interested in watch repairing." It costs 50 cents, but then it's 222 pages, with illustrations.

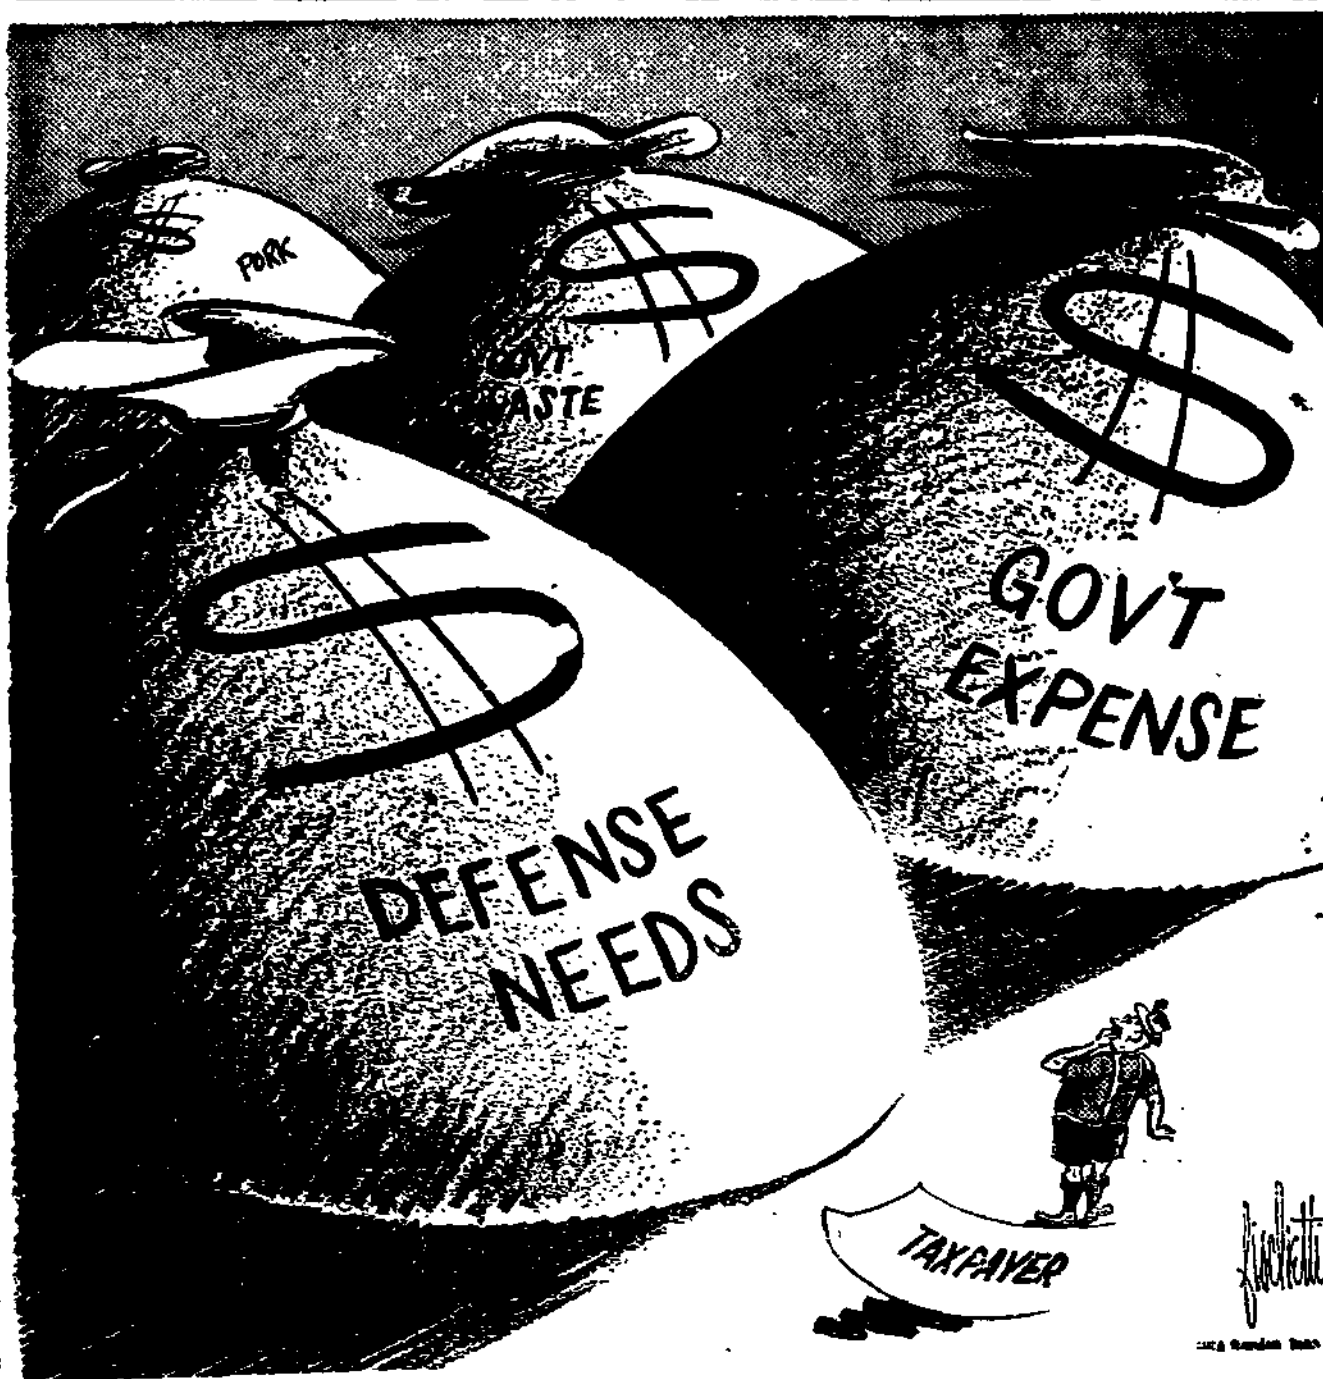

But these are only two of many aids to hobbying—that the G.P.O. has on sale. You can learn home tanning of small pelts, or growing useful and ornamental gourds or raising hamsters in the cellar. If you are not a whiz at some hobby or other, it's your own fault.

Every citizen should feel it a duty to attend the dedication and unveiling of the monument at War Memorial Field Thursday evening. This is a tribute to Warren county's war dead of interest, not only to residents of the borough, but every one in the county. It is a time when all should honor the county's heroes.

We must all be a little patient with Harry Truman these days, especially if we hear reports that he's getting behind in his work. Margaret's back from Europe, you know, and like any dutiful father, the president is spending most of his time listening to the story of her trip.

The outstanding feature of Tuesday's primary election was the apathy exhibited by voters in most sections of the state, excepting possibly where bitter local fights served to attract supporters to the polls. It also demonstrated again that forecasts and polls are as unreliable as ever.

Here And There

Have a letter today from Lagos, Nigeria, West Africa, containing a strange request which we pass on to any readers who may be interested. It says:

The Editor, Warren Times-Mirror, Warren, Pa. Sir: Kindly excuse us for a space in your daily newspaper. We have been seeking for American pen friends since a long time. Luckily for us we saw your address and we hope and trust that by writing you, you could help us. Therefore we beg for the publication of our names in your daily paper for some days of the week, and our aim is to correspond and exchange articles with them. We shall like to correspond with both sexes, young or old. We trust that you would not disappoint us. THANKS. We have these articles for exchange: Tiger skin jackets, monkey skin jackets, alligator skin hand bags, tiger skin handbags, snake handbags, ivory carvings, ebony carvings, brass carvings, bracelets, necklaces, gold rings, monkey skin handbags, snake skin slippers, full length of each skin, and some other fine articles. We like these for them—medium size jackets, ranger belts, (30-32), multi-colored knit shirts, cameras, sport shirts, trousers, wrist watches, crepe shoes, multi-color ankle socks, (10-12) hand-painted ties, sundries, stationery, wool sweaters (medium), etc. We shall be very grateful if our names are published quickly; we shall reply to any letters by Air Mail. Thanks; May God help you and your country. Answer, THANKS A LOT. We remain yours truly, Miss Esther Adeleke, care of Adebisi Adeleke, Box 724, Lagos, Nigeria, W. Africa; Mr. Bisi Adedokun, 5 Ojo-Gwara street, Lagos, Nigeria, W. Africa. (Please if you like anything from here we shall be happy to send them.)

This 'N That: Ten years ago this week it was announced that the Red Jackets, making plans for the season had chosen "Doc" C. S. Reese as coach and manager. . . . Along with the rest of his many friends and well-wishers we are glad to add our welcome greeting to Dr. F. S. Erickson who has opened his office at 304 West Third avenue, limiting his practice to obstetrics and gynecology, after getting his family comfortably located in a new residence at the corner of Conewango avenue and Division street. . . .

According to the Titusville Herald the ambulance taking Clarence Burleigh, 25, Route 1, Torpedo, from the Warren General to the Hamot Hospital in Erie, to be one mile from Garland, stopped at the scene of the accident, but he was unable to recall what caused the smashup July 14. . . . Six Ajax Iron Works engines are under water in the Kansas flood. Corry plant officials have been advised. . . . A public demonstration by the Civil Air Patrol personnel at ten northwestern Pennsylvania cities, scheduled for Sunday, July 29 at Seneca airport, near Oil City has been cancelled due to operation orders which conflict with the Sunday event. . . . The Style Shop closed all day because of remodeling which makes us wonder how they could possibly improve this neat little haberdashery. . . .

One week from today will be the first of August reminds "The Bird" in the Kane Republican, which means autumn isn't far away, the fall crickets will soon be chirping their lonesome dirge and thoughts of starting to school will emerge clearer and more pressing every day. . . . A cigarette tossed into a booth at the Eddie's Exposition Shows at Kane Saturday night caused a loss estimated at more than $100 from fire. . . . Tomorrow evening there will be a grange meeting at the West Spring Creek town hall when East Branch will be host and there will be the presentation of a floral tribute, with Grand Valley Grange in charge of the program and Spring Creek presenting the program. . . . The Jamestown Falcons in an effort to bolster their home attendance have filed a protest against Erie and Dunkirk radio stations broadcasting Cleveland games while they are playing at home. . . . An 81-year-old Pittsburgh fisherman caught a muskellunge in Conneaut-Lake Saturday that measured 48½ inches and weighed 40 pounds. . . . Stories of rattlesnakes being killed along Dougherty run recalls that over in Cameron county will again put a premium on rattlesnakes killed, the reward being $1 for each reptile. . . . Plans for a new press box at Loveland Field, Corry, are well advanced with predictions made that it will be ready by the middle of August. . . . which reminds us something should be done about erecting a stand or shelter for the press and radio reporters at War Memorial Field for the coming High School football season. . . . Speaking of Memorial Field, it is our sincere hope that there will be a large crowd present for the dedication and unveiling of the monument at the entrance Thursday evening, following the half hour band concert beginning at seven o'clock.

Tidbits: Mr. and Mrs. Myron Jewell, Dartmouth street, off to Pittsburgh today to see the Pirates and Giants do battle at Forbes Field. . . . Bob Buyer, popular correspondent for the Jamestown Sun who has made a host of friends during the seven months that he has been "covering" the Warren area, is leaving that position to take a job with the Courier Express at Buffalo, carrying with him the best of luck from everyone who has made his acquaintance; Bob is loud in his praise of Warren and the people who make up the community, and says he regrets very much leaving. . . . Strong Controls Needed To Help Curb Inflation

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Another round of wage increases is in store if Congress passes a weak anti-inflation bill. This prospect arises principally from three factors:

1. If Congress does not put effective controls on prices, organized union leaders will demand additional wage increases to make up for increases in the cost of living. Many unions—principally in the automotive industry—will get these increases automatically through escalator clauses in their contracts. Others will demand them through new collective bargaining agreements.

2. If there is no effective price control, organized labor leaders will stage another walkout and refuse to cooperate with the government's stabilization program. The group of union leaders who met in Washington in a futile effort to persuade Congress to continue a tough price-control law, made this a definite threat.

3. Texas Rep. Wm. L. V. Lucas' proposed amendment to the Defense Mobilization Act, recognizing the Wage Stabilization Board, would probably break that organization and its already badly bent efforts to hold the line on the wage front. The Lucas amendment would change membership of WSB from equal representation of six public, union labor and management representatives to a predominantly public board with only advisory status.

NOT only would the union representatives walk out from such a body, but management representatives have indicated they'd bow out too. Finding any capable citizen of good reputation to head up a public wage advisory committee would be difficult.

Dr. George W. Taylor, present chairman of WSB, is leaving the organization in September. Getting a successor for him is already a tough problem for stabilization officials.

This combination of circumstances is what makes another round of wage increases on the giddy inflationary spiral seem almost inevitable. Kick-off for this increase might well come with the CIO Steelworkers.

Their current contract expires Dec. 31, 1951. It may be reopened for discussion 60 days before expiration, or about Nov. 1. Rubber, packinghouse and textile workers' unions also have new negotiations coming up. Coal runs to March 12, 1952.

Total labor income, including wages and salaries, is now running at the rate of about 165 billion dollars a year. Another 10 per cent wage increase applied across the board for a full year would add 16 billion dollars to the inflationary pressures.

ANOTHER round of wage increases, if it comes, would be roughly the sixth since the end of the war. There are no sharp cut-off dates on which it can be said one round left off and another began. By major industries, the increases have been roughly as follows:

STEEL: 18½ cents an hour increase in 1946; an average of 15 cents in 1947, an average of 13 cents in 1948. There was no wage increase in 1949, but pensions and insurance benefits were granted in lieu of a fourth round. The fifth round averaged 15 cents, beginning in 1950.

AUTOS: 18½ cents in 1946, 11½ cents in 1947, from 13 to 14 cents in 1948. The fourth round in the auto industry took the form of a long-term contract with automatic cost-of-living escalator clause and other benefits which in 1949 amounted to an average of 10 to 11 cents an hour. In 1951 this contract has given wage increases of 8 cents an hour plus 4 cents incentive raise.

COAL: $1.85 a day increase in 1946, $1.20 a day in 1947, $1 a day in 1948, 70 cents a day in 1949 and $1.50 in 1951. This brings the miner's daily wage to $16.25. In this period the welfare fund royalties have been raised from 5 cents a ton to 1944 to 20 cents a ton in 1950.

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

A spectacular blaze that broke out in an agitator in the United Refinery Saturday evening did an estimated damage of $60,000, partially covered by insurance.

Sheffield's pumper got its first real test of hard work at the Refinery fire, with Dave Ritchie at the wheel and Wilbur Brammer in charge.

A valued business man and citizen of the community was called in death in the passing Saturday afternoon of Frank Morrison, at his home in Liberty street.

Says Will Rogers: Did you read about some women getting held up in China? Well, they was the female kin folk of Harry Carr, the best writer on the coast. He wrote an awful nice piece sympathizing with the bandits.

Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh left for North Haven, Me., for family farewells before starting their aerial vacation trip to Japan.

When the Warren borough schools open on Tuesday, September 3, all of the buildings will be in first class condition as result of the repairs and alterations which are being made this summer. Fine progress is being made at the new McClintock building in the West Side and it is hoped to have the school ready for occupancy soon after the beginning of the school year.

War Bulletin: A morning bulletin issued at Moscow declares Hitler's army continuing not only at Smolensk but also in the Zhitomir sector west of Kiev and on the Finnish front in the north. Berlin acknowledges resistance is stiff.

To Fire Chief Doug Kropf went the fish story telling championship at the contest held following the weekly meeting. He was presented a bowl of gold fish. Dick Ross was awarded second place prize, a bottle of mouthwash, while in third place was Harry Summers who received a plaque of the "fish he didn't catch."

Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour are "Caught in the Draft" at the Liberty theatre this weekend.

Elks Scout and Explorer Post Are At Camp Olmsted

Twenty-three boys under the very able leadership of Billy Mulvey are beginning the second week of camping at Boy Scout Camp Olmsted.

Their tent city, situated in a cleared spot high up in the area, was found capable of preventing flooding during the heavy down-pour of Wednesday night last week and early Sunday morning. Twelve tents and a shelter comprise the site.

Activity in passing tests and earning merit badges is most prevalent and each boy is working towards reaching a specific goal. The waterfront under the leadership of Dick Ruhlman is holding a prime place in the Troop's daily routine, while the dining hall is very popular and meals are served excellent. The trading post and the boys lined up for a snack each time the place is opened.

On Sunday afternoon, parents and friends of the group gathered at Camp Olmsted for a visit with the boys and an inspection of the facilities. At 5:30 the picnic crowd gathered on the porch numbered between 100 and 125, enjoyed a graining table of delicious items. Each boy in camp was represented by two to eight adults. Following the picnic the visitors made a tour of the dining hall and were very high in their praise of the rejuvenated kitchen with the new stove, hot water tank, two large refrigerators and electric power, making feeding conditions much more desirable than previous years.

At the completion of this week, Friday night campfire will find the Troop and Post receiving a very large number of advancements.

The camp situation is so improved that there is a very jovial attitude among all participants and is due to the splendid job so far accomplished by Scout Executive Sanford and his staff, three members of which Robert Koebley, Louis Garber, Jr., and Bill Wehner are members of Post 5, with very able and pleasant leadership of the group by Bill Mulvey who is making this camp a memorable occasion for the boys of Number 5.

FREEHOLD VOTES FOR SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

Freehold township voters gave a thumping approval to a $20,000 school district bond issue for construction of a new school in Lottsville.

The unofficial tally of the vote in the township's two precincts showed:

| | Yes | No |
|--------------|-----|----|
| Freehold 1st | 80 | 9 |
| Freehold 2nd | 31 | 26 |
| Total | 111 | 35 |

This was the only bond issue up for vote in Warren county in yesterday's Primary balloting.

Titusville Herald: The Red Cross Blood Bank received the same kind of response from the citizens of Titusville yesterday as the primary election did—very light. Franklin Remains Wet by Two to One Franklin, July 25—Franklin voted wet, 2 to 1, on both beer and liquor. The local option question on the ballot had the wet interests, tavern owners and fraternal organizations alike, visibly worried. The outcome was not in doubt, however, as soon as the first districts reported their vote.

The results in 10 of the city's 11 districts on beer was: yes 2,309; no 1,229.

In 9 of 11 districts, the total on liquor was: yes 2,106; no 1,114.

Observers did not believe that the complete count would alter this standing to any great extent. All 11 districts had reported, some on beer, some on liquor and some on both questions, so the outcome was certain.

TIONESTA VOTES TO STAY IN DRY COLUMN

Tionesta, July 25—Chester Zuendel, incumbent Forest county commissioner, was leading other candidates for the Republican party's nomination to the commissioner's post, according to unofficial results from 12 of the county's 14 voting precincts. Zuendel received 327 votes as compared with 268 for C. G. Datschenspeck and 183 for Joseph H. Coughlan. Two are to be nominated.

In the race for county treasurer, Mary L. Fiely received 185 votes as compared with 165 for Iva Daniels.

Sheriff F. S. Ellis seemed assured for the Republican party's nomination to the sheriff's office when he received 459 votes as against 236 for his rival, Frank Madera.

Tionesta residents voted to keep the borough dry in local option vote during the primary election. Voters cast 254 ballots against and 135 in favor of legalized liquor in the borough.

In 1923, the better-looking young ladies were beginning to find out that a tight-fitting suit has certain man-attracting advantages. The girl at left, giving her all for the picture, is Miss American of 1923, Charlotte Nash. High style in 1923 is the next outfit. It includes up-to-the-minute knitted bathing stockings, a jaunty bow, heavy web belt and white piping on the two-piece suit. All in all, a right fetching outfit—for 1923. But the general public couldn't go the tight-fitting outfits quite yet. At right are representative specimens of general public splashing in the surf at Palm Beach, Fla. The younger girl still has the pantaloons stretching up to the knee, the same as they were back in the 1870's. At the right is an outfit that seems to be nearer in spirit to the Roman toga than the bathing suit of today. Nobody could go around calling these two immodest.

VFW AUXILIARY

A large turnout is hoped for at the meeting of the Dinwiddie-Schwartz VFW Auxiliary at 9 p. m. Thursday in the post rooms, since plans are to be made for a special "family picnic." MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

If you're cooking for guests and want to make a showing, try this lazy-day-meat loaf as a main dish suggestion. It's different from the usual cold meat loaf in that the seasoned ham and veal filling is baked inside a crisp corn meal crust that seals the meat juices and keeps the loaf flavorful and moist. Once baked the loaf keeps well in the refrigerator.

For easy slicing, chill the baked loaf overnight and bring it to the table cold. Serve a hot casserole of creamed new potatoes and garden-fresh peas. Pass a bowl of tangy horseradish sauce. With a salad of cooked asparagus spears and sliced tomato wedges, it's an ideal menu for a lazy summer day.

Crusty Meat Loaf Supreme (Makes 12 servings)

Crust: One cup enriched yellow corn meal, 1 cup sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ cup shortening, 2 egg yolks, 2 tablespoons water.

Meat Loaf: One pound lean ground ham, 1 pound ground veal, ¾ cup quick rolled oats, uncooked, ¾ cup milk, 3 eggs, 1½ tablespoons chopped parsley, 1½ tablespoons chopped onion, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ½ teaspoon dry mustard.

Sift together corn meal, flour and salt. Blend in shortening until mixture resembles coarse bread crumbs. Beat egg yolks; add water; combine all at once with pastry mixture. Form into smooth ball. Roll out pastry on well-floured board to ¼-inch thickness; cure bottom and sides of 9 x 5-inch loaf pan, being careful to moisten edges of pastry where it is joined. Reserve enough pastry to cover top.

Combine all ingredients for meat loaf. Put meat loaf mixture into pan, packing firmly into corners and bottom of pan. Top with pastry. Seal edges. Decorate with pastry cut-outs, if desired. Make small hole in top of pastry to allow escape of steam. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1½ hours.

Cool in pan on rack for ½ hour. To remove from pan, loosen from sides gently and turn out of pan upside down. Then turn right side up and cool for 30 minutes longer. Refrigerate overnight. Slice and serve with cream horseradish sauce.

Cream Horseradish Sauce

One tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 cup chicken broth or 1 bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup hot water, 2 egg yolks, ¼ cup cream, ½ cup horseradish, chopped chives.

Melt butter; add flour and combine well. Add chicken broth gradually, stirring until thickened. Beat egg yolks and add cream. Pour thickened chicken broth over egg yolks gradually, stirring constantly. Add horseradish and cook 5 minutes longer. Chill thoroughly. Sprinkle chopped chives over sauce and serve with crusty meat loaf supreme.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, fresh frozen or canned, soft-cooked eggs, coffee cake, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Ham and cheese sandwiches, cabbage and apple salad, chocolate brownies, iced tea, milk.

DINNER: Cold crusty meat loaf supreme, tangy horseradish sauce, casserole of creamed new potatoes and fresh peas, mixed greens and tomato salad, berries, orange layer cake, coffee, milk.

Morning Mirror when the paper was merged with the Evening Times, into the Times-Mirror twenty years ago, is back to become a member of the editorial staff, news that will be welcomed by many who knew him when he was formerly employed here. Congressman Gavin's address at the dedication and unveiling of the monument at War Memorial Field Thursday evening will be broadcast, but whether it will be "live" or tape recorded depends upon what success LeRoy Schneck has in juggling regularly scheduled programs. It was a quiet election but the usual large crowd of regulars gathered at the commissioners' office last evening and stayed until late to hear the returns. . . . Congratulations to the winners! . . . Watch for an announcement before the end of the year revealing the future status of Frank Miller, county treasurer, whose term expires the first Monday of January. . . . Those four employees of the National

MR. AND MRS. CARLTON INER OLSON

The Catholic church in Irvine was the scene on Saturday, July 21, at 2:00 p. m. of the marriage of Joel Dove and Carlton Iner Olson. The Rev. Father E. J. Jacobs performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with mixed flowers in shades to match gowns of the bridal party. Music was by the church choir, with Mrs. Dorothy Miller at the organ.

Given in marriage by Walter Swanson, the bride wore a jacket of Chantilly lace over a gown of white taffeta, matching pillbox hat and nylon veil. A pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, completed her ensemble. With it she carried white roses showered with ivy.

All of the attendants were sisters of the bride, their frocks being of marquisette over taffeta, designed and made by Mrs. Walter Swanson, mother of the bride. Mr. Louis Franklin, as matron of honor, wore yellow; Mrs. Carl Johnson, Jamestown, N. Y., was in light green; Mrs. Fred Swanson,

Her Own Mismanagement May 'Overwork' a Housewife

OFTEN the self-styled "overworked housewife" is more a victim of poor management than of necessary overwork.

When that is the case, it is usually because the housewife makes at least one of the following mistakes:

She doesn't have her work well enough organized so that it is pretty much equally divided among all the days of the week.

She has never figured out just what household tasks are really necessities and what ones are the result of being overly-meticulous.

She isn't making use of all the short cuts and easy methods of doing routine jobs that many housewives have found to be time savers.

She gets no cooperation or help from her family because she isn't an executive but a one-woman drudge.

She is the kind of perfectionist who can't rest easy until she gets her house in shining order and then has a fit if any member of the family disturbs the order.

SHE'S ALWAYS FUSSING

SHE is never content with her house "as is," but is always dissatisfied with something and scheming and planning to change this or that. She is a putter-offer, letting the work pile up, so that just contemplating all there is to be done tires her out.

She would rather complain of being overworked than set aside a couple of hours a day to get a little rest.

She is a victim of the view that housework is the dulllest form of drudgery—and therefore hates the job so much she does it without spirit and without getting any real satisfaction out of what she does accomplish.

Of course, there are many women with large families who are just plain "overworked." But there are even more women who think they are "overworked" but who could, with better management and a different attitude toward their jobs, get their work organized well enough to get out of the "overworked" group.

Annabelle Pierce In Senior Recital At Conservatory

A most interesting musicale was enjoyed Monday evening in the concert hall of Warren Conservatory of Music, when Annabelle Pierce, Youngsville, was presented in her senior piano recital.

Former pupil of Miss Lillian Swanson at Youngsville, Mrs. Pierce's last three years have been spent under the instruction of Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell. Proof that her talent has ripened to a fine degree was shown in her playing of her first two selections. In this group were Rubinstein's Etude No. 11 and Kammerl Ostrow, which she played with good style, brilliancy, and musical taste.

In the second group, the Prælium Opus 10 by MacDowell was, perhaps, the most expressive, while in the third, two Grieg numbers were played with excellent expression. The Mexican Fantasia by Miller is a brilliant concert number for two pianos, full of Spanish rhythms and dash, and in this Mrs. Pierce was ably assisted at the second piano by her former teacher.

Jeannine Williams, Youngsville, was the assisting artist on the program. She has a very pure soprano, sings with an ease that is very pleasing, and has more than the usual interpretative powers. Her best number, no doubt, was the aria from "Sampson and Delilah."

Beverly McIntyre, Youngsville student vacationing from studies at Mississippi Southern College, furnished an artistic accompaniment for the singer.

CLASS OF '60

Akeley WSCS Has Reports and Plans Future Activities

The Akeley Methodist WSCS held its July meeting at the home of Mildred Angove, with Edna Angove as co-hostess. A delicious chicken dinner was served on the lawn to approximately 30. The day was also Edna Angove's birthday, and her daughter-in-law presented her with a beautiful tiered birthday cake which she had made, and all joined in singing the Birthday Song.

President Grace Granquist presided at the business meeting and gave the call to worship on the subject, "Come Unto Me." The prayer was by Rose Bradley. Twelve members responded to roll call, plus two visitors.

After routine business and reports, Rose Bradley read "An Inventor's Prayer for Light" and an article on "Philosophy." The president read "Bees for Our Membership Bonnet," and attention was called to the School of Missions to be held at Chautauque for a week in August. The mother and daughter banquet will be held at the church on Tuesday, July 31, at 6:30. The society, with Ellen Lundgren in charge, will serve a smorgasbord for the Forestry Association at the Grange Hall the latter part of August, proceeds to go toward the church building fund.

Ora Miller reported sending seven cards since the last meeting, and read letters of thanks from Bernice Sears and Berdessa Haller for flowers sent them while in the hospital. Edna Angove reported sending flowers to Cecil Cable, who was ill in the Warren Hospital. The society plans to send a gift to Mattie Clendenning, who is ill at the Barley Nursing Home.

Hallie Holt, vice president, gave the program, reading "Apple Butter Sweetens the World" and "Good Growing Days." She also conducted an "Officers Training Day" when the officers told of their duties or were instructed in them.

Other readings by Mrs. Holt were "Religion of the World," a play on "Dope" as produced by Harlem negroes, and the poems "Make Me" and "Growing." Closing prayer was by Rose Bradley. The August meeting will be held with Josephine Lundquist and Margaret Arthur on Wednesday evening, August 8, the place to be announced later. "V" will be the letter for the memory verses.

TRIP ENDS UNEXPECTEDLY

Bradford Era: A motorcycle excursion for two teenage Scottsdale youngsters ended unexpectedly at Irvine Mills at 10 o'clock Monday night. Blair Loffer and his young pal, unidentified were traveling to Niagara Falls. They turned into a sideroad off the main highway at Irvine Mills and intended to camp for the night. Gasoline spilled over the engine and the motorcycle was burned beyond repair before the Limestone Fire Department arrived on the scene. C. W. Kelfer of the Limestone fire police reported that the boys were transported to Bradford to board a train back to their homes. After it was all over, the youngsters were startled when informed the road they had selected for their camp leads to the mixing plant of the DuPont Powder Company.

"Believe It Or Not" Oddities to Appear Here This Weekend

Many of Robert Ripley's personal collection of "Believe It Or Not" oddities being exhibited on national tour under the auspices of the Disabled American Veterans, will be presented in Warren Sunday and Monday, by the Pennsylvania State Chapter of the D.A.V.

"Believe It Or Not" cartoons have been appearing in newspapers throughout the world for years. On display in this exhibit will be some of the original drawings picturing facts which many found difficult to believe. The greater portion of the exhibit features part of Ripley's amazing collection of the authentic original subjects on which the cartoons are based. Every item is selected from the unusual assortment of strange things which Mr. Ripley spared no effort or expense to unearth during his endless explorations of all parts of the world.

The mobile exhibit is mounted in a special custom-built trailer, featuring a medieval torture device, the "Iron Maiden of Nuremberg." This inhuman killer of the dark ages is only one of many interesting articles with curiosity or oddity significance. There is a working model of an inventor's attempt to perfect perpetual motion, a knife that cuts cold steel, and an Indian necklace made from human bones, the trigger fingers of the men massacred at Custer's Last Stand.

Included in this exhibit are mysterious oddities and wonders of every age and every part of the world. There is a two-headed calf, a mummified hand with a cure that came true, a $50,000 shoe, the jawbone of a huge man-eating shark, a genuine murder poison ring, and many other items.

Location of the showing will be on Liberty street at Second avenue in front of the Kresge store. Admission will be free, and the exhibit will be open to the public from nine a. m. until nine p. m. Any funds raised through volun-

FARM NEWS

Protect Egg Quality—To protect the quality of eggs, store them in a cellar with a temperature of 50 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit and a humidity of 75 per cent. recommends F. H. Leuschner, extension poultry specialist of the Pennsylvania State College. Gather the eggs three times a day, and cool and pack them daily.

Control Aphids—Spraying with nicotine sulphate is suggested by Stanley Gesell, Penn State extension entomologist, for control of aphids on vegetable crops. It is also possible to use rotenone or pyrethrum extracts. For dusting, use a 1 per cent rotenone dust, a 4 per cent nicotine dust, or a ready mixed rotenone-pyrethrum dust.

Cultivate Gardens—Keep the surface of the garden soil in a loose, fine condition by frequent cultivation, urges J. O. Dutt, extension vegetable specialist of the Pennsylvania State College. Avoid deep cultivation, especially near the plants. Shallow cultivation is just as effective for killing weeds.

More Laying Hens—It looks like we shall have more laying hens to provide market eggs next fall. Penn State extension agricultural economists report that there has been a heavy demand for pullet chicks for stock replacements this spring.

Protect Tomatoes—Spray or dust your tomato plants to protect them from blight, urges A. H.

Bauer, Penn State plant pathologist. Use a fixed copper spray or dust, or bordeaux mixture. Four weeks after transplanting is a good time to start protection.

Use Running Water—An automatic water system on the farm is not only a convenience but also a labor-saver, reminds N. H. Wooding, extension agricultural engineer of the Pennsylvania State College.

The American Federation of Labor was organized in Pittsburgh Nov. 15, 1881.

All Roads Lead to Camp Birdsall Edey During the Summer Season

The turnover at Warren County Girl Scout Camp at Grunderville has been a heavy one this summer, with approximately 90 new campers arriving every three days, and, when the final group enters camp Thursday to remain through the 28th, the total for the 1951 season will reach a tally of 500.

Berniece Conner, executive director of the council and camp director, is assisted by a staff of counselors who are mainly college girls home on summer vacation, with at least one adult assigned to every eight girls. There are five tent units of five tents each, the girls ranging from 10 to 18 years in Intermediate through Senior Scout rank. Each group plans and prepares its own meals each day; also its own activities to cover the general program, swimming, hiking, crafts and the like. Results of these endeavors will be seen in the closing campfire program to be held at 9:30 p. m. Friday. Parents of the girls have a standing invitation to visit camp at any time and will be welcome for this campfire program. Council board members have been invited to pay a visit to camp at 5:30 p. m. Friday, bringing a nosebag lunch for the evening meal, and remaining for the 9:30 program, also.

Pictures on this page, taken by a Times-Mirror photographer, show some of the camping activities in the following order:

1. Eileen Bonnert, assistant waterfront director and counselor from Ridgway, teaches youngsters use of arms in swimming.
2. Bill Conner, son of the director, is lifeguard, and "Doctor", the St. Bernard, is the camp pet.
3. Troop 11, Pittsfield, stands before Pineledge while Director Conner tells newcomers about camp. The girls constructed the shelter sign.
4. General view of the pool, where each unit gets two half-hour swim periods daily.
5. Girls of Warren Troop 79 form a circle at the Pipeline Unit.

GETS SMITH POST
The Rev. Stephen T. Cray, native of Warren and graduate of Yale University and Union Theological Seminary, will be the new assistant professor of religion at Smith College, according to announcement received from Northampton, Mass. An Army chaplain during World War II and for two years chaplain at University of Rochester, he has recently been working on his doctor of philosophy degree at Yale.

New Publication of Traffic Authority Contains Grim Warning Against Speed

The faster you drive, the tighter becomes Death's grip on the steering wheel, according to T. E. Transeau, traffic safety authority and Director of Pennsylvania's Highway Safety Bureau, whose newest publication has just come off the press.

The new brochure, "Speed—Still Public Enemy Number One," ought to be required reading for everybody interested in saving lives on America's highways, in the opinion of Revenue Secretary Otto F. Messner, chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Advisory Committee, the co-ordinating agency for such activities throughout the state.

"To those actively engaged in making conditions safer on the road of their own communities," the Secretary declares, "this new booklet is especially valuable."

"A dangerous rise in one phase of motoring mishaps has been taking place in recent years, and Mr. Transeau has pointed out repeatedly where that increase was heading. To the surprise of some other traffic safety experts," Messner says, "Director Transeau's prediction materialized last year. What had been merely a gradual trend blossomed into a full-fledged, all-time high in that kind of traffic fatality."

Secretary Messner was referring to deaths out on the open road which leaped from 22,000 in 1949 to 25,300 in 1950—3,300 more lives lost on rural highways in just one year.

In his booklet, author Transeau points out that a favorable but misleading aspect had been put on the entire road-safety picture because the national death toll had been shrinking a little. The overall improvement, he discloses, was the result of good accident-prevention work in urban areas, where the streets and highways are posted for moderate speeds and where there is some degree of enforcement.

What most authorities overlooked, however, was that the number of fatal accidents on "country" roads never did stop mounting from year to year. And the greatest single factor in that alarming situation, he stresses, was speed.

Out on the open highway, where there is least traffic control, is where the speeder tramps down hardest on the accelerator. Naturally, when something goes wrong then, and he collides with another car, or runs over a pedestrian, or rams into a tree, the results are frightful.

In his brochure, the author reveals that 11 states out of the 48 accounted for well over half the nation's traffic deaths. Only one of those states has a speed limit lower than 55 miles an hour—most of them permitting mile-a-minute speed or letting the driver use his own judgment as to what is "reasonable and proper." Pennsylvania, whose limit is 50 miles per hour, was not among the 11.

Analyze such statistics carefully, Transeau contends, and you come up with a damning indictment of "Speed"—nemesis of the unthinking driver.

Walter Hunt, who invented the safety pin, thought so lightly of it he sold his patent rights for $400.

EXHIBIT COMING HERE—The Iron Maiden (above) of Nuremberg, medieval torture device, will be one of many amazing curiosities and oddities to be seen on Sunday and Monday, July 29 and 30, when the Pennsylvania State Disabled American Veterans organization brings a touring exhibit of Robert Ripley's "Believe it or not" to Warren. The exhibit truck will be parked in Liberty street, near the Second avenue intersection. The exhibit will be free and will feature many of the authentic objects of art and interest collected by Ripley during his extensive travels to remote lands.

The High Cost of Walking

Most of us remember when we could buy a pair of shoes for little more than it now costs to have them repaired.

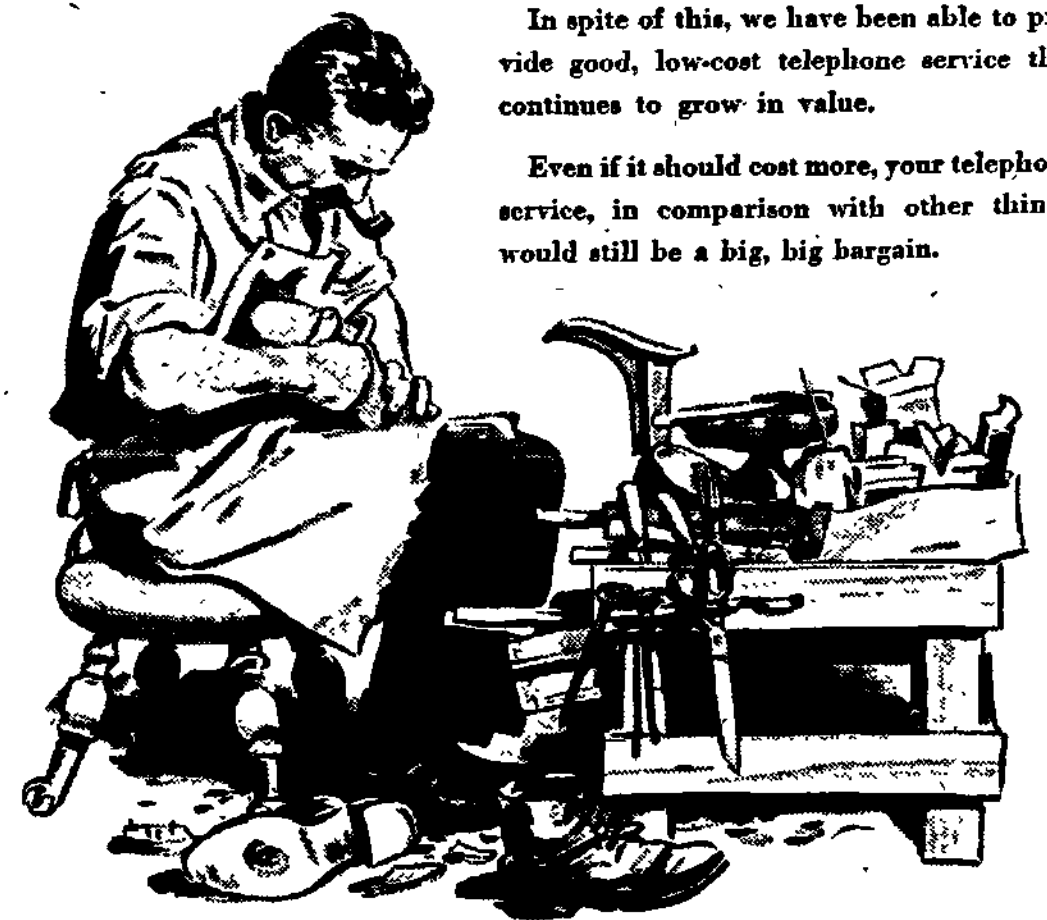

But don't blame the man who makes the repairs. He has to pay more for everything he uses. Blame the dollar! It just won't buy what it used to.

We are feeling the pinch, too.

The cost of supplies and equipment used in the telephone business is going up and up, just like the cost of supplies and equipment for other businesses.

In spite of this, we have been able to provide good, low-cost telephone service that continues to grow in value.

Even if it should cost more, your telephone service, in comparison with other things, would still be a big, big bargain.

NEWS OF THE WORLD AS SEEN IN PICTURES

SUMMER SWIMMING: SOME ARE WORKING—This would seem about the perfect time of year to go swimming, and in St. Louis, Mo., a good many residents did go, albeit forcibly. Here, a workman struggles to keep sandbags intact that are protecting a riverfront industrial plant, left, from the waters of the flooding Mississippi River. While St. Louis proper, built on a bluff, suffered comparatively little, damage in this waterfront area was estimated at $4,000,000, including cost of sandbagging and other protective measures.

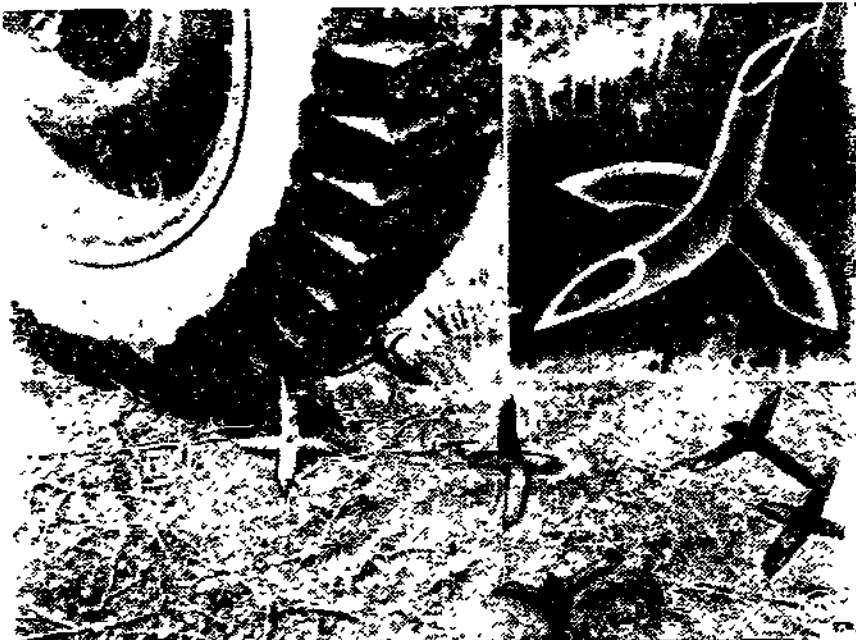

ON A DUCK'S BACK—NO WATER—Being evacuated, small children with their mothers are placed aboard an Army "duck" belonging to a Missouri American Legion post (see Legion symbol lower left corner) at West Alton, Mo., which is completely surrounded by the flooding waters of the Mississippi River. Meanwhile, a citizen's army of some 400 residents ignored orders to flee and doggedly kept sandbagging a levee in this area, near the confluence of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers.

BEGINNING THE LONG JOURNEY HOME—Bearing the flag-draped body of their chief, Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, who succumbed to a heart attack in Italy after completing an important diplomatic mission in Spain, United States sailors board the USS Mt. Olympus in the Bay of Naples. The body is to be shipped to Washington by plane. Sherman, 54, when he was struck down, had taken over as Chief of Naval Operations when he was 53, youngest man ever to hold the Navy's No. 1 post.

RIDGWAY SEES TRUCE TEAM OFF—Standing alone on the banks of the Imjin River, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme commander of UN forces in the Far East, watches as the white-flagged lead jeep in a UN truce convoy heads out of Allied-held territory for Kaesong and another Korean truce conference with the Reds. Upon returning, the armistice negotiators said solid agreement had been reached on two major points, but a dispute over one unnamed "key issue"—believed to be Communist insistence that all "foreign troops" be withdrawn from Korea—blocked completion of an agenda for cease-fire negotiations.

REDS GET THE POINT—The Air Force is making life miserable for drivers of Communist vehicles in Korea by strewing road with ingenious "tacks" seen in photo. Inset sketch shows their simple construction—two pieces of bent pipe, with sword-sharp ends, welded together. They are so built that no matter how they fall, there is always a sharp point sticking up. Because they are hollow, they cause blow-outs in even self-sealing tires.

GIANT AND MIDGET—Frankie Saluto, midget clown with the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey circus, looks even smaller when he gets up against the world's largest incandescent light bulb, a 50,000-watt giant that produces as much light as one thousand 100-watt household lamps. Built by GE as a stunt in 1929, for "Light's Golden Jubilee," no practical use was found for the bulb until it was used recently in the filming of a circus movie.

BOTTLE HOUSE FOR SERVICEMEN—The Senate Preparedness Subcommittee pointed to this house when it demanded that the Defense Department protect servicemen from being "shamelessly victimized by rent gougers." A Camp Breckinridge, Ky., corporal and his family of three pay $25 a month for this "home." The front is built of mortar and whitewashed whisky bottles, while the rear is constructed of several hundred empty beer cans.

RETIRING GENERAL—Lt. Gen. Elwood R. (Pete) Quesada, one of the Air Force's top tactical commanders, plans to retire soon at the age of 47. He is reported at odds with his superiors over the role of strategic bombing. A native of Washington, D. C., he has been in the Air Force since 1924, his most recent assignment having been as commander of the joint task force that conducted atomic tests at Eniwetok this year.

FRENCH PREMIER?—After several others had failed to set up a middle-of-the-road cabinet for France, President Auriol called on Rene Mayer, above, minister of justice, to attempt the task. Mayer will seek Assembly approval and try to bring the center parties and rightist groups together.

QUEEN PAIRS WIN—Ending a week-long "Battle of Charm" between Florida and California girls at Santa Monica, Calif., judges selected two from each group as winners. Left to right are Marcia Fuller and Mary Dwight of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Beverly Jones and Lillian Farmer of Los Angeles.

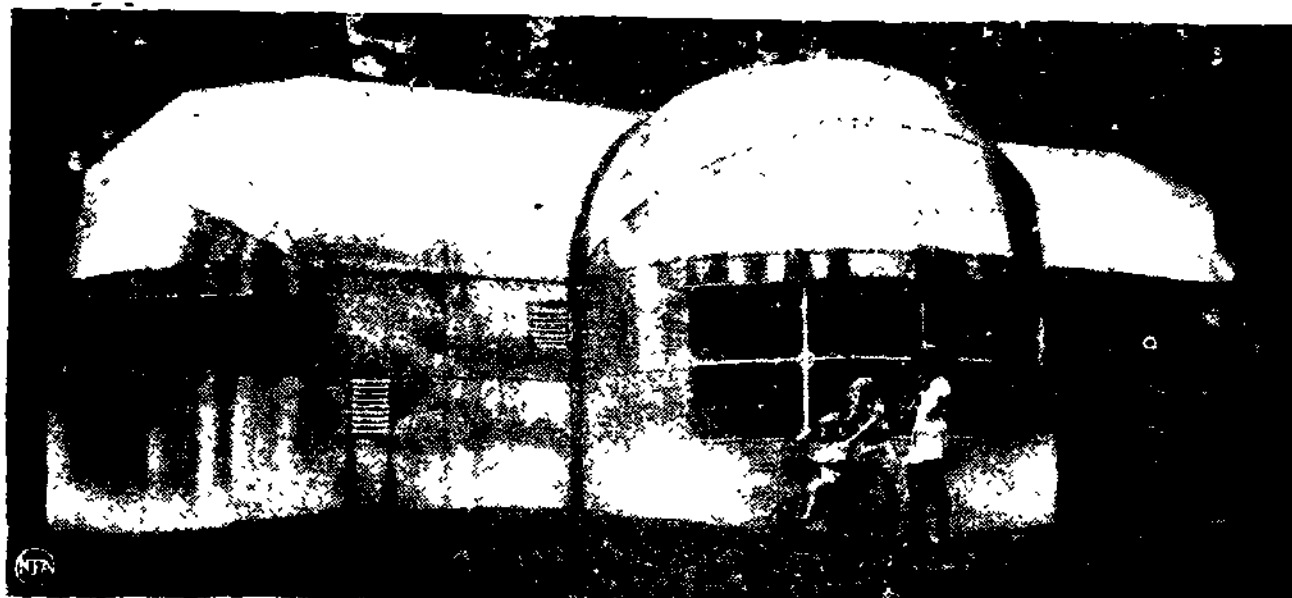

WANTA GO HOME—Although its time is up, as indicated by the red flag on the parking meter, this indignant feline is still stranded on its perch by the Missouri River on a flood-covered street in Chester, Ill. The cat didn't even have to pay a parking fine when it was rescued and returned to its owner.

NEW "LEG"—Taski: Takaesa of Tobaru, Okinawa, who lost her leg and her mother during a World War II bombing raid, gratefully accepts a new crutch from M/Sgt. Samuel McLaron of Tampa, Fla., to replace the uncomfortable home-made one she had been using. The sergeant, a member of the 307th Bomb Wing of the 29th Air Force stationed on the island, discovered the girl's plight while touring the village. He and other airmen made the steel crutch at their outfit's sheet metal shop during their spare time.

SCRUB TEAM—The plumbing fixtures may be crude, but they work all right as Pvt. Gordon Mosey of South Perth, Western Australia, scrubs "Pak," a Korean orphan adopted as a mascot by Pvt. Mosey's unit.

ON HIS METAL—This aluminum alloy home, designed by Thomas Edison Westall, was built near Marion, N. C. Said to be dustproof because all air entering the house is filtered by air-conditioning units, it has cornerless rooms, curved windows of transparent plastic and floor space equivalent to that of the average five-room, conventional house.

Yanks and Red Sox Emerge Winners in Vital Contests

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, so-so performers on the road, once again are strutting like peacocks before the home folks.

Both the Yanks and Red Sox, virtually tied for the lead, emerged with flying colors in the first brush with the contending Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox in the 12:30 p.m. and tuck American League pennant race yesterday.

The Yanks, topping the Red Sox by three percentage points, opened a 19-game home stand by turning back the Indians, 3-2. The loss dumped the Indians out of a second place tie with the Red Sox into third place, one game behind the Yanks.

Boston launched a 21-game home stand by thrashing the slipping Chicago White Sox, 8-3. The defeat dropped the fourth place White Sox 3½ games back of New York.

In the remaining American League game the Detroit Tigers nipped the Washington Senators, 2-1.

Brooklyn, meanwhile, stayed 8½ games in front in the National League. The Dodgers defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6-3, in ten innings. The runner-up New York Giants edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, in ten innings while the Boston Braves downed the Cincinnati Reds, 6-1, and the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-1, trimmed the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-5.

That old Yankee formula, airtight pitching and clutch hitting, brought the bombers their fifth straight victory and their 28th in 37 games at the Stadium. The victory also was the Yanks' 12th straight over the Indians in New York.

Leo Kieley, rookie left-hander up from Louisville, restricted the scoring White Sox to four hits as he turned in his second victory without a loss for the Red Sox. Kieley blanked Chicago until the eighth inning when Don Lendhardt followed two walks with his tenth home run of the season.

The Red Sox, who now have won 31 and dropped ten at Fenway Park, sailed the game away in the first inning when they scored five runs against Howie Judson and Harry Dorish on three hits and five bases on balls.

Sal Maglie became the National's first 14-game winner as the Giants beat the Pirates. Willie Mays singled home Al Dark from second with the deciding run in the tenth.

Kovacs Loses to Blears at Gerry

Gerry, July 25—Captain Holmes directed Lord Blears to a verdict over Sándor Kovacs here last night in the feature "rattle" show before 625 fans.

In the semi-final, Buffalo's Don Lewin came from behind to down George Butler of Niagara Falls. Don Bietelmann, University of Buffalo flash, stopped Henry Steel of Buffalo in the preliminary bout.

The Lordship won the first fall after 15:42 with his favorite weapon, the Boston crab. During the early minutes of the bout, the "English Champion" was twisting Kovacs' leg. After about 10 minutes, the scene changed and Kovacs was on the offense by hurting Blears' arm behind his back.

Kovacs used his favorite weapon, the reverse full nelson with his legs to drop the English grappler after 7:28.

Both men exchanged tumbles before a near double knockout. At the count of "five," Kovacs started to get up. At the count of "seven," Blears started to "awaken." Kovacs started falling backwards and the Lordship grabbed him and pinned him with a body press at 4:40.

Sylvania Outlasts Fadale Jr., 14-13

Sylvania outlasted Fadale Jr., 14 to 13, in a Hot Stove Junior League slugfest at Beyer field last night.

Winning run for Sylvania was scored in the top half of the seventh frame. Sylvania had a seven-run inning in the fourth, while Fadale's counted nine of their markers in the bottom half of the same frame.

Gnaghe started on the mound for Sylvania and yielded to Skinner in the third. Pittman was behind the plate. Zingone and Heffernan were the battery for Fadale's.

Extra-base wallpops included two doubles by Lauffenburger and two-base wallpops by Pittman and Sadler, all for Sylvania.

Another College May Be Involved In Basketball Scandal

Peoria, Ill., July 25—(AP)—The college basketball betting scandal that has smeared New York and this cage-proud town today was expected to spread to a near eastern school.

Even as authorities sought to swell the list of five Bradley University bribe-taking players in $5,500 payoff it was reported that New York District Attorney Frank Hogan was prepared to drag a school between here and New York into the mushrooming cage scandal.

Vincent A. G. O'Connor, assistant New York district attorney, disclosed that the vicious activities of gamblers had touched another unsuspected hinterland school.

O'Connor who has been assisting in unearthing the surprising bribery at Bradley, one of the nation's top cage schools the past two years, declined to reveal the next school under suspicion.

Meanwhile, five members of Bradley University basketball team were in technical custody for accepting bribes from gamblers.

They were All-American Gene Melchiorre, 23; William Mann, 24; Aaron Presce, 24; Charles (Bud) Grover, 22; and Jim Kelley, 21, who still has another year of college out of school.

O'Connor said that two more petition at Bradley. The other four Bradley players remain to be questioned, but it was believed neither was seriously implicated in the Bradley "fixers" which involved Bradley's 67-59 win over Washington State College, and Bradley's 77-74 triumph over Oregon State last Dec. 7. The "fix" was on a point-spread basis.

At New York, it was announced Nicholas (The Greek) Englis, and his brother, Anthony, both of Brooklyn were under arrest for conspiring to fix two Bradley games.

Anticipate a Large Crowd Tonight For Sunset Loop Scrap

A large turnout of Warren area baseball fans is anticipated tonight at the State Hospital field to watch the Sons of Italy and Hammond Iron clash in a game which will decide the first half championship of the Sunset Baseball league.

The scrap is scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock.

A dispute between the two home teams over lack of new balls to start a contest, slated for last Wednesday night, has served to whet interest in the outcome of tonight's clash.

Both the Sons of Italy and Hammond Iron are now sporting six win-two loss records.

The teams have met twice so far this year, with Sons of Italy winning the first game by a 6-2 count, while the Ironmen won the second clash, 5-4.

The league's second half schedule will start Monday.

Jr. League Playoff Scheduled Friday

Hot Stove officials today scheduled a playoff game between Keystone Garage and the Clarendon Merchants for Friday night at 6:30 o'clock at War Memorial field.

At stake will be the first half championship of the Junior League.

Both the Keystone and Clarendon finished the first half race with identical records (five wins and one loss).

Clarendon's one loss was to Keystone by a 4-3 count, while the Garagemen suffered their one defeat at the hands of Sylvania by a 10-2 count.

The game will be under the direct supervision of the Hot Stove Junior League steering committee, with Nick Creola as chairman.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC

By The Associated Press

The Butler Pirates' bats caught fire last night and the team romped to a pair of easy Middle Atlantic baseball league victories over the Oil City Refiners, 22-8 and 14-2.

Butler's Larry Quartararo got five hits, including two homers, in the two games and batted in six runs. Paul Cave fanned 13 men in the second game and allowed Oil City only five hits.

In other games, Erie defeated Niagara Falls 6-3 and New Castle won from Lockport 12-6.

Bill Green got five hits in six trips for New Castle, batted in two runs and scored two.

Manager Pete Appleton went in as a relief hurler in the ninth to stop a Niagara rally and assure an Erie victory. El Russo hit a three-run double for Erie in the fourth inning.

PONY LEAGUE

By The Associated Press

The Pony League race is looking more like the torrid American League struggle every day—at least for the first three teams.

Only five percentage points separate the league-leading Olean Oilers from the surging third-place Hornell Dodgers.

The Dodgers moved up last night by slapping Olean, 8-3, while Jamestown took it on the chin from Wellsville, 15-12, in a three-hour slugfest.

Jamestown and Hornell are in a virtual tie for second, one-half game off the pace. However, the Falcons are two percentage points ahead of Hornell.

In other games, Hamilton combined hitting and pitching to take a doubleheader from Bradford, 4-0, and 12-10. And Batavia beat Corning, 4-2.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

ECCENTRIC BIDDING GUIDED BY A PLAN

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service The bidding of today's hand was a bit peculiar. East's overcall in spades was so thin that it was practically invisible. East didn't want to pass tamely when the opponents had a part score.

When two clubs was passed around to him, East felt obliged to take further action. His bid of two hearts was risky, but West's return out to be reasonably safe. In any case, North decided to go to three clubs.

West opened with the queen of spades and South was faced with the task of playing the type of hand in which there is no clear-cut line of play. The expert handles such a hand by a sort of "general direction" play. East played the deuce of spades.

seemed to be avoiding trumps. Declarer let the jack of clubs ride around to dummy's queen and returned another diamond. East had to step up again, this time with the ace of diamonds. South won with the ace. By this time South had a fairly good idea of the distribution. He therefore led a heart to dummy and ruffed a diamond in his hand. Next he ruffed a spade with dummy's low trump and ruffed dummy's last diamond.

spade West had only three trumps left. He had to ruff uselessly, as dummy ruffed with the king of clubs. He was sure to make one of his trumps, but he could not set the contract. It is interesting to note that South would have been set if he had bargained right on some such routine plan as drawing trumps. That line of play would lose a trump to West and a second spade to East in addition to the inevitable two losers in diamonds.
